

Need to replace a module? It's easy, just Plug & Play: simply replace the module while your installation is still running: Moreover, hot swappable modules reduce the risk of errors and complex training.

Our systems use modules or "building blocks" that can be integrated into shelves, subracks or cabinets depending on what you need, but everything else can be customized, simply ask for it.

Note: Product properties may change without a notice by EPC.